FROM THE EDITOR

This edition finds us many new ways of travel. Even 2021 is the year of pain from pandemic but we hope that we can start our trip again by late this year.

Asia is still the bucket list of travelers from all over the world. This new year edition, NOW Travel Asia magazine explores a range of travel destinations including Chiangmai, Chiangrai and Phuket in Thailand, Japan, Gorgia and Italy that await for your visit in the near future. Even this year has witnessed a very slowdown and uncertainty in global economy because of pandemic. But international travelers' needs still unchanged.

Let's enjoy travel through our magazine both in print and online channels and prepare yourself be ready to travel again this year.

* NOTE : This issue, we are proudly to introduce the newest design hotel in Chiangmai Thailand, NIMANO SUITES HOTEL that can fulfill your dream of Small Italian Style Hotel.

Chiangrai

Chiangrai's reputation as "the city of art" wasn't given by chance. However, you have to experience it firsthand to truly see the spirit of this amazing city. This issue of My World brings you a glimpse of Chiangrai's artistic destinations that makes it one of the most attractive cities in the region.

Wat Rong Khun

WHITE TEMPLE

Inspired by Wat Ming Mueang (Nan) and the love for the country, religion, and the king, Wat Rong Khun was designed and built by Chalermchai Kositpipat, the famous Thai visual artist, as a tribute for King Rama XI. The temple is easily the most beautiful temple in Thailand with signature all-white chapel and aesthetic contemporary Thai design.

ADDRESS:

60 MOO 1 PHAHONYOTHIN ROAD,
PA O DON CHAI, MUEANG, CHIANGRAI

OPEN HOURS: EVERY DAY 8.00 - 17.00

WAT MING MUEANG

Wat Ming Mueang (also known as Lying Elephant Temple) has a long history as the religious center and the gate of Chiangrai.

The temple is located on Kua Dum intersection where the old city gate, Kua Dum Gate, once was. The charming Burmese and Lanna architecture house the holy Buddha's relic passed on from the Supreme Patriarch of Thai monk. To the east of the temple is a historical pond with a statue of lying elephant which lends its name to the temple. The pond was once the pitstop for the people traveling in and out of the city to rest and refill.

ADDRESS:
TRIRUT ROAD, VIEANG, MUEANG, CHIANGRAI
OPEN HOURS: EVERY DAY 8.00 - 17.00

Chiang Rai

CLOCK TOWER

Built in honour of the queen mother, Chalernchai took 5 years to design and construct the golden clock tower that has become the landmark of Chiangrai. The inspiring Thai clock tower comes to life every night at 19.00, 20.00 and 21.00 when different shade of light shines upon it and the music surrounds the area.

ADDRESS:
BANPAKARN - JEDYOT ROAD, VIEANG, MUEANG, CHIANGRAI

WAT RONG SUEA TEN

Chiangrai is full of artistic landmarks, and Wat Rong Suea Ten is one of many destinations you should not miss. Widely known as the “Blue Temple”, Wat Rong Suea Ten boasts colourful blue, light blue, and indigo chapel that combines seamlessly with traditional Thai pattern. The result is an outstanding architectural artwork and a popular place to experience Buddhist sculptures and paintings.

ADDRESS:

306 MOO 2, MAE KOK ROAD, ROP WIENG, MUEANG, CHIANGRAI

OPENING HOURS:

EVERY DAY 7.00 – 20.00

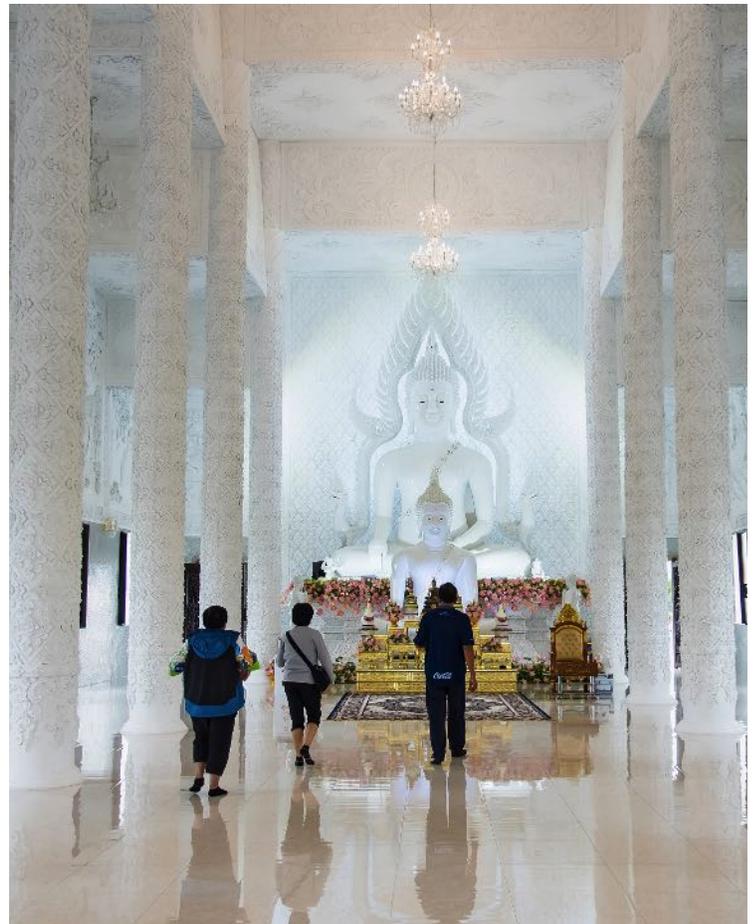

WAT HUAY PLA KANG

Located on a hill overlooking the amazing landscape of Chiangrai, Wat Huay Pla Kang was an abandoned temple before Master Monk Pob-Choke restored life back to the spiritual center.

The temple expansive ground is home to the giant white Guan Yin statue that sits majestically on the top of the hill. Although the giant statue can be seen from afar, it's not the only landmark of Wat Huay Pla Kang. Next to the statue is the unique Chinese-Lanna pagoda which stands 9-storey tall and surrounded by 12 mini pagodas of different zodiac. Two dragons lead visitors up the staircase into the pagoda where statues of Buddha and Buddhist saints reside.

NEW YEAR'S BREEZE IN PHUKET

Dubbed as the jewel of Andaman, Phuket is a world-famous island destination, but people don't just visit the island for the beach. Besides its abundance of natural and cultural beauties, some of you may not know that Phuket is UNESCO's City of Gastronomy and a popular destination for gastronomy tourism. There are plenty of 'food heritage' to explore and many chic cafés to hop around, so let's head south and check-in at Phuket!

Explore Phuket Old Town

► What better way to explore the history of Phuket than taking a slow stroll around the atmospheric old town along Thalang, Yaowarat, Deebook, Phang nga, Phuket, and Montree roads. The Sino-Portuguese homes on these roads tell the tales of Phuket's rich history as the cultural melting pot. Visit heritage museums like Chinpracha House, Phuket Thai Hua, and the old Siam City Bank building, or explore the modern creativities like the colourful buildings on Soi Rommani and street arts hidden around the alleyways. There won't be a moment you wouldn't want to capture, especially at chic restaurants and cafés along the roads.

Explore the Hidden Beaches

KAO KHAD SCENIC SPOT

Kao Khad Scenic Spot allows you to climb up the tower on top of a high hill for a spectacular panorama of Phuket. The landmark is one of a few scenic spots offering an all-around, 360-degree view.

Islands Hopping!

PHI PHI ISLAND - AO PILEH LAGOON

Island hopping is an activity you wouldn't want to miss when visiting Phuket, especially when Phi Phi Island is open for visitors. The beautiful cove of Ao Pileh Lagoon features tall limestone cliff overlooking the sparkling emerald sea. The cove is home to a variety of marine lives and underwater scenery, making it the perfect spot for snorkeling.

KOH MAI PHAI

As a part of Hat Nopparat Thara - Mu Koh Phi Phi National Park, Koh Mai Phai is naturally abundant. It may be on a path less traveled, but the unspoiled peaceful beach and water offers a way to truly be a part of the nature. If serenity is your cup of tea, Koh Mai Phai will be your sanctuary.

RACHA ISLAND

Racha Islands consist of the bigger Racha Yai Island and its smaller sister, Racha Noi Island. Most traveler visit the big sister first as Racha Yai has all the five-star resorts and modern facilities for a luxury stay. Lying north of the island is Ao Patok, the most beautiful bay on Racha Yai. Snorkeling here means you will get to see amazing coral reef and rare corals like staghorn coral, as well as young coral reef.

The Ultimate Entertainment Centers

HANUMAN WORLD

Besides beach and water activities, Phuket is also considered a leading entertainment hub in Thailand. Hanuman World let you live an adventurous life of the monkey king. MIYAMA

Kyoto Hidden Gems

Hidden in the valley to the northwest of Kyoto, Miyama could be the sister of the world-famous Shirakawa-go village. The charming village of Miyama is known for its agriculture, traditional thatched roof farmhouses, and wonderful atmosphere of the bygone days. Kitamura leaves are used to construct the iconic Japanese architecture which was widely used during the Edo period. Since the farmhouses aren't just for the show, the interior is adapted to accommodate modern lifestyle while keeping the iconic architecture and the exterior design. Some are turned into restaurants, cafés, or hotels, welcoming guests with its unique atmosphere.

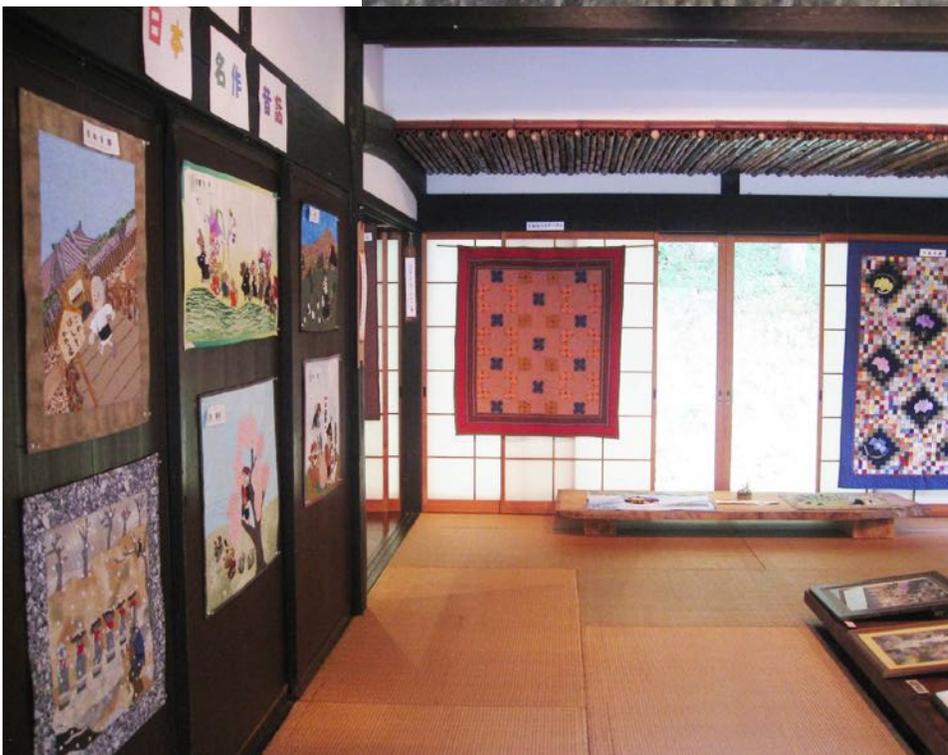

GETTING THERE:

From Kyoto, hop on the JR Sagano Line to Hiyoshi Station. Catch the Nantan bus and take a 50-minute ride to Miyama. The village is perfect for taking a big break, enjoy the serene atmosphere and a leisure bike ride.

SEASON TO BE IN

The best time to visit Miyama is in November as the temperature is great for outdoor activities and the autumn leaves paint the sceneries in vivid colors. If you plan to enjoy the snow, January to February is a great time to visit.

Places to See

MIYAMA KAYABUKI GALLERY AND FOLK MUSEUM

Miyama Kayabuki Gallery and Folk Museum sit next to one another just on the edge of the town. Both of them display the history of Miyama in their own unique way. While the gallery highlights the history through arts and paintings, the museum exhibits antiques and traditional tools, as well as the way of life of the local residences. Your curiosities about the thatched roof and its evolution will be answered here.

GEORGIA

Five Wonders of
GEORGIA
Your Next Unforgettable Journey

Georgia, the paradise of Caucasus, is the destination worthy of your next exploration. Located east of the Black Sea, on the crossroad between Europe and Asia, Georgia boasts unique culture and amazing landscape that haven't yet been heavily seasoned like many famous destinations around the world. We are bringing you 5 fabulous wonders of Georgia you would instantly fall in love with.

HOW TO GO

The easiest way to reach Georgia is a 7-hour flight from Suvarnabhumi Airport (Bangkok, Thailand) to Hamad International Airport (Doha, Qatar) and Tbilisi International Airport (Tbilisi, Georgia).

TBILISI

As the capital of Georgia, Tbilisi is the door to explore the charming country. Tbilisi was established in the 5th century and beautifully preserved its old town vibe despite its status as the biggest and most modern city in the country. The picturesque scenery of Mtkvari River cutting through the town center against pastel tone buildings with orange roof is spectacularly European.

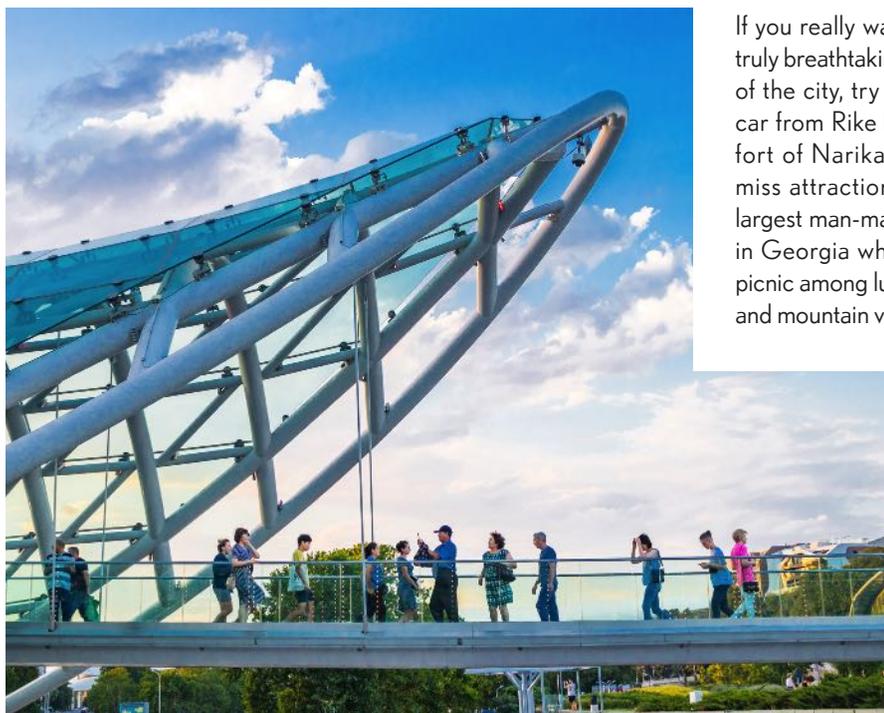

If you really want to experience a truly breathtaking view from the top of the city, try catching the cable car from Rike Park to the ancient fort of Narikala. Another not to miss attraction is Tbilisi Sea, the largest man-made fresh water lake in Georgia which is perfect for a picnic among lush green landscape and mountain views.

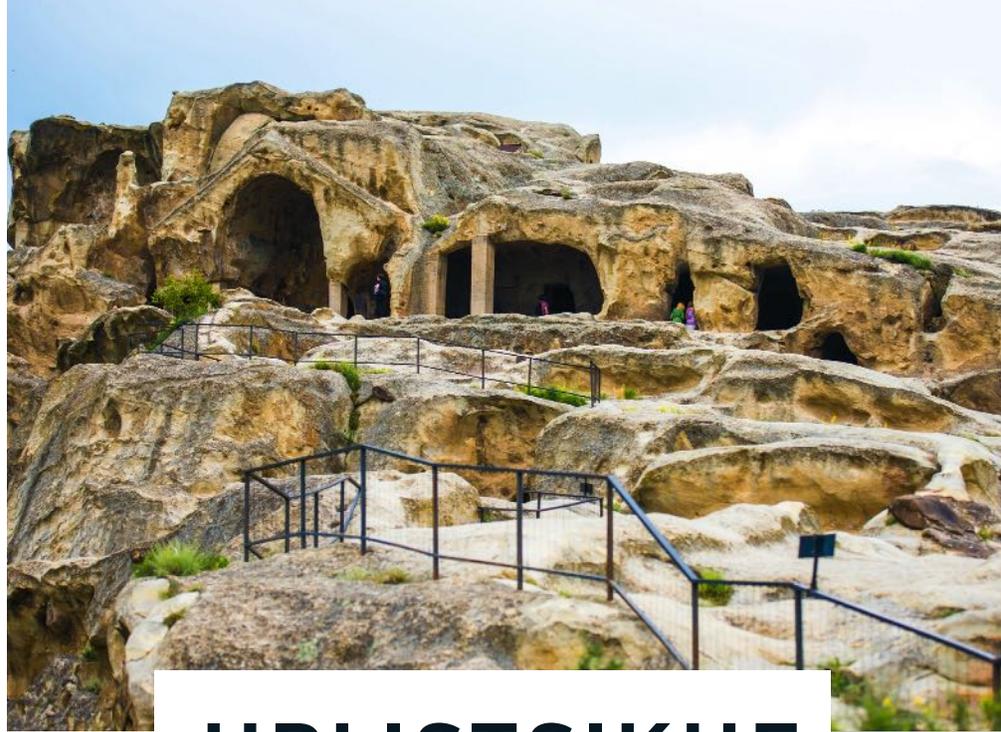

CABLE CAR OPENING HOURS:
EVERY DAY 12:00 – 24:00
CABLE CAR TICKET: RETURN TICKET
2 LARI (APPROX. 20 BAHT)

VISA

Thai citizen can enter Georgia without a visa and can stay for as long as 365 days.

UPLISTSIKHE

The UNESCO's World Heritage town of Uplistsikhe is not only the oldest town in Georgia, but a unique rock-hewn town as well. Located 85 km.

from Tbilisi in Shida Kartli region, the ancient town is known for its rock-hewn homes, theater, church, and wine cellars that dated back more than 3,000 years. The town covers more than 20 acres and overlooks amazing valley and river views.

ADDRESS:

UPLISTSIKHE CAVE TOWN, SHIDA KARTLI, KVAKHVRELI COUNTRY

OPENING HOURS: EVERY DAY 1000 - 1800

ADMISSION FEE: 7 LARI PER PERSON (APPROX. 70 BAHT)

TIP!

Uplistsikhe Cave Town guided tour is available if you love to learn detail stories of the ancient town. The tour costs 30 Lari (approx. 300 Baht) and takes around 2 - 3 hours. If you prefer exploring on your own, a headphone is available for rent at 10 Lari (approx. 100 Baht) for detail description of the town.

JUTA VILLAGE

The village of Juta nestles peacefully in the Caucasus, 165 north of Tbilisi.

The village quiet location offers spectacular valley views with snowy mountain background and slow-life vibe where you can spend all day relaxing to the tranquilizing sound of Jutistskali and Chaukhistskali Rivers. Juta Village is widely known as one of the most beautiful villages in the world and a popular destination for mountain climbers and hikers. Hiking routes can range from a short 3 - 4 hours tracks to challenging 3 - 4 days tracks! If you are a beginner, make sure you contact a local guide before starting your exploration.

ADDRESS:

JUTA VILLAGE, CAUCASUS MOUNTAINS, SIONI COUNTRY

GERGETI

TRINITY CHURCH

Twenty-six km. north of Juta Village lies another attraction you would love - Gergeti Trinity Church. The 14th century church is the oldest and the most famous church in Georgia and an important religious landmark of the region. It is also a popular waypoint for trekkers in the area.

ADDRESS: GERGETI TRINITY CHURCH, KAZBEGI, SIONI COUNTRY

USHGULI VILLAGE

Located on the foothill of Shkhara Mountain, Ushguli Village is another charming UNESCO's World Heritage town in Georgia. With the altitude of 2,100 meters above sea level, Ushguli is one of the highest villages in the world and boasts dazzling mountain panoramas and charismatic view of 12th century homes.

ADDRESS: USHGULI VILLAGE, CAUCASUS MOUNTAINS, SVANETI COUNTRY

MATERA

The Ancient Archaeology Site of Italy

Famous for its 9,000 years old ancient cave dwellings, Sassi di Matera is one of the most unique ancient civilizations in the world. The historic site sits in the city of Matera, Basilicata, in southern Italy. Calcarenitic rock is literally carved into to form thousands of cave dwellings which set themselves up like a maze with pathways and steep stairs running up and down and sometimes over the roof of other homes. As one of Italy's oldest ancient sites, Sassi di Matera is the evidence of, arguably, the first human settlement in the region. After it was named UNESCO's World Heritage site in 1993, hotels and restaurants bloomed alongside the increased number of tourists. It is now the dream destination for leisure explorer and featured in well-known films, including The Passion of Christ, The Nativity Story, and King Davis.

GETTING THERE:

The most convenient way starts from Rome (Leonardo da Vinci International Airport) to Bari (Bari Karol Wojtyła Airport), then catch a 1.15-hour bus ride to Matera.

Piazza Vittorio Veneto

Piazza Vittorio Veneto, or the town square, is where you will be surrounded by history! Starting from the Palazzo dell'Annunziata (the old palace which is now Cine Teatro Comunale or the theater), to Chiesa di San Domenico church, and Belvedere Luigi Guerricchio.

Under the town square lies the largest water reservoir in Matera, the Palombaro Lungo, that will leave you breathless!

GETTING AROUND

Walking is preferable if you plan to experience all the detail around the city. The city can be explored in a day, so get in shape and prepare for a good exercise!

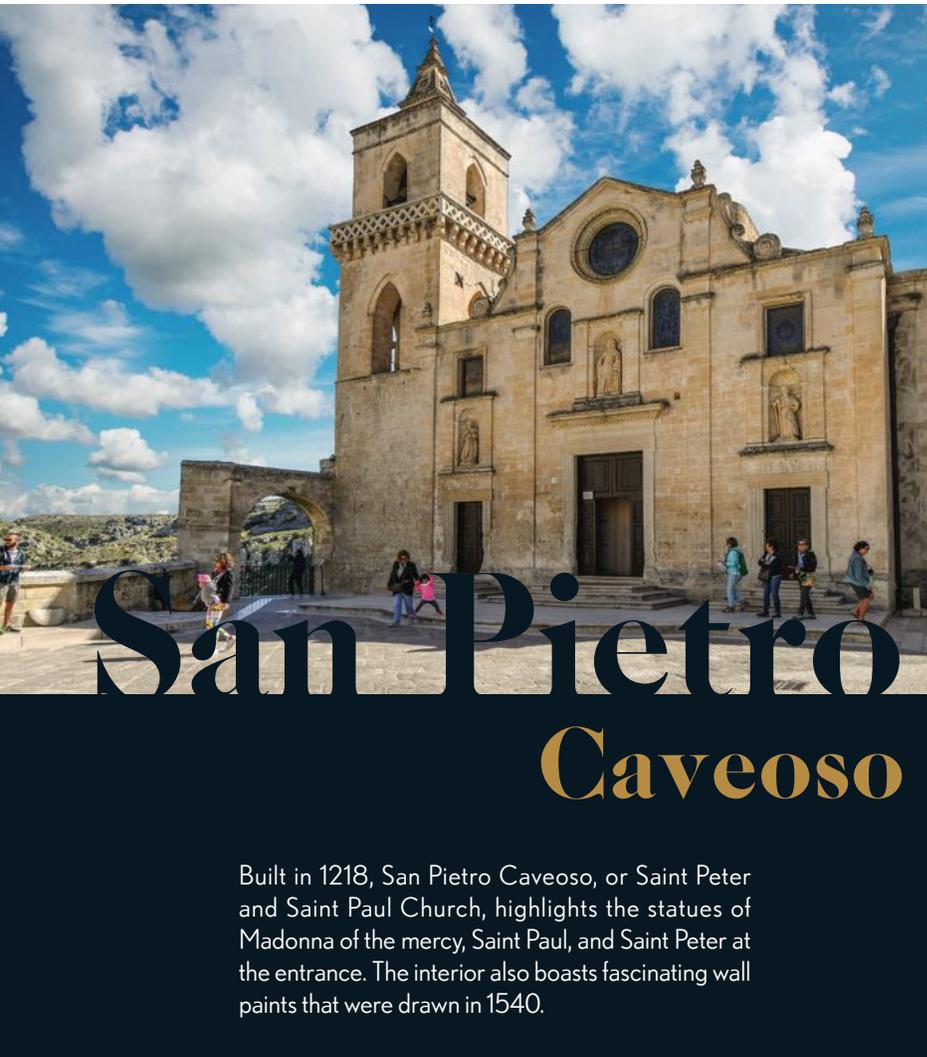

Cathedral of Santa Maria Della Bruna

Cathedral of Santa Maria della Bruna was built in dedication of Santa Maria della Bruna and has over 8 centuries of history behind it. The striking Apulian Romanesque architecture blends medieval Roman and gothic architectures seamlessly and it can be seen anywhere in the city as the cathedral sits on the highest peak in town.

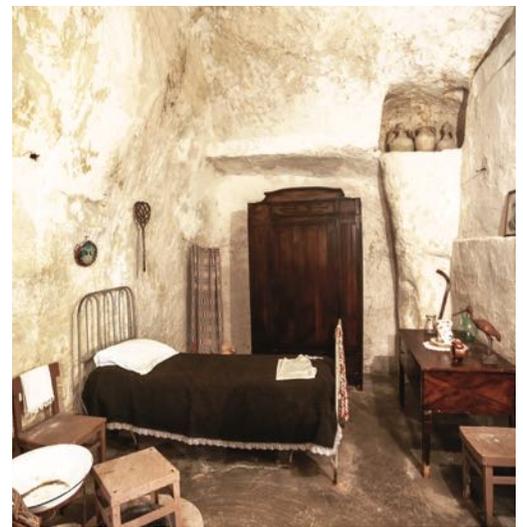

Built in 1218, San Pietro Caveoso, or Saint Peter and Saint Paul Church, highlights the statues of Madonna of the mercy, Saint Paul, and Saint Peter at the entrance. The interior also boasts fascinating wall paints that were drawn in 1540.

Casa Grotta di vico Solitario

The ancient cave dwelling of Casa Grotta di vico Solitario is carefully preserved as a museum to show the way of life of the bygone civilization. It's a simple 'all-in-one-room' home that simply put the living room, kitchen, bedroom, prayer room, chicken house, and horse stable together. The museum is a great place to learn about the ancient people and the history of Matera that goes back more than 7,000 years before Christianity.
